Body Fourd At Cadillac

Mrs. Mabel Corcoran Drowns in Pond

Cadillac — The body of Mrs. Mabel Corcoran, 52, missing since Tuesday, was found late Wednesday in a pond close to the Cadillac city dump by a searching party made up of residents, state police and the sheriff's office.

Mrs. Corcoran was reported missing Tuesday by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ewing, of Cadillac, with whom she was living.

Dr. Robert V. Daugharty, coroner, called the death accidental drowning.

Husband Died.

Mrs. Corcoran's husband, Barney, died Oct. 1, 1951. He was a project engineer for the state highway department.

Surviving, besides Mrs. Ewing, are three other daughters, Mrs. Frank Ashley of Cadillac, Mrs. James Kearney of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. Doyle Maitre of Illinois; two sons, Roger of Evart and Dale in the army, and 10 grandchildren.

The body is at Yearnd funeral home.
